OF JOURNAL, hereby and voluntarily authorize Universidad Colegio Mayor de Nuestra Señora del Rosario to publish the aforementioned work in printed and electronic means. Further, I am aware that the work, because of the academic nature of the University, will be published as an illustration intended for teaching and educational purposes, not for profit, and, therefore, I authorize that the funds that may be collected from its dissemination be used to support the financing of the costs borne by the University for the dissemination of this or any other work published for these purposes.

Moreover, I declare that the research work is original and unpublished and was written by myself (and by all the undersigned authors) without violating or usurping third-party copyrights. It is of my exclusive authorship, and I hold the ownership of the intellectual property rights. I guarantee that it does not contain quotations or transcriptions of works not duly referenced; that it does not include defamatory statements against third parties or contrary to public order and morality; and that it does not violate the rights of other authors. Further, it does not include inappropriate practices such as data manipulation, results fabrication, quotations manipulation, or use of AI or large-scale language models that could modify or structure sections of the article and affect the quality, reliability, and credibility of the research.

I declare that I have due consent for the treatment of the personal data of the research participants who have stated to be previously, fully, and comprehensively informed of the treatment of their data and the intended purposes for their use, collection, and storage. In case of any claim for infringement of intellectual property rights of third parties or action by the owners of the data, I agree to hold Universidad del Rosario harmless for any claim, conviction, lawsuit, legal action, collection, or claim, whatever its nature, which may be filed for damage caused. Thus, under the foregoing terms, in case of lawsuits or claims of any nature, including but not limited to civil, administrative, commercial, criminal, intellectual property, etc., I shall defend the Journal.

In the event of any claim or action by a third party regarding the moral or economic rights of the author on the work in question, I shall take full responsibility and defend the rights granted herein. I declare that the work is not subject to any encumbrance, limitation to use, or transfer of economic rights that would prevent the development of the purpose of this authorization.

I hereby declare that the publication and authorship of the text presents the following conflicts of interest with the journal or its editorial team_____, with funding organizations_____, and with official and private organizations that have the following impact on the research work_____.

I hereby confirm that the research data, methodologies, and other resources from the research are available at _____ or are not available for the following reasons: _____

PERSONAL DATA TREATMENT AUTHORIZATION

EDITORIAL

As the owner of the personal data captured in this form, being previously, expressly, explicitly informed, I hereby freely authorize Colegio Mayor Nuestra Señora del Rosario, identified with NIT 860.007.759-3 and with address at Calle 12C No. 6-25, Bogotá D.C., PBX: (601) 2970200, website: <https://www.urosario.edu.co/>, hereinafter “the University,” as the party responsible under Statutory Law No. 1581 of 2012 on Personal Data Protection to capture, store, organize, use, process, delete, anonymize, dissociate, transmit, and transfer to third parties within and outside the national territory and generally treat my personal data to apply the purposes that the University describes below: sending notifications of the editorial process; administrative management; provision and improvement of the service; sending news of the editorial progress and information of institutional interest; indexing of academic publications (if applicable, authors, evaluators, and committee members) in national and international systems; sending newsletters; customer and user loyalty campaigns; effective and complete attention to petitions, complaints, and claims; and circulation of information to the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation, if applicable.

The communications deriving from the above purposes may be made through analog, physical, and electronic means and any other means already known or to be known by Universidad del Rosario and by the entity with whom the University has an agreement to perform the activities described in the purposes. If the custody and storage of personal data is done by an entity with which the University has a contractual relationship, you authorize the transmission of your personal data to a third country, which has the security standards for the protection of personal data set by the Superintendence of Industry and Commerce.

The personal data you provide will only be used for the purposes you authorize, and they are under our custody and subject to physical, technical, and administrative security measures to prevent any loss, adulteration, fraudulent, or inappropriate use.

RIGHTS OF THE DATA HOLDER: You have the right to know, update, and correct your personal data. You may also request its deletion or revoke the authorization granted for processing it.

MEANS TO EXERCISE THE RIGHT: If you have a claim or inquiry regarding your personal data, you can enter the request in the "solicitudes" (requests) section on the University's website and then send it to habeasdata@urosario.edu.co or you can leave your request in the physical mailbox located in the Santafé Building Carrera 6 N° 12 C - 13 Bogotá D. C. from Monday to Friday, 7:00 AM–7:00 PM, and Saturdays, 8:00 AM–1:00 PM.

PROCEDURE TO CONSULT THE DATA PROCESSING POLICY: For more information about the processing of your personal data, please see our Personal Data Processing Policy at www.urosario.edu.co.
